POLICY

Employment of Staff

The chief has the responsibility of recommending the employment of staff. Newly appointed staff members shall be on probation stats for a period of no less than one year. Probation may be extended by the chief for a period not to exceed an additional six (6) months. Such new employees, however, shall be eligible for the privileges and benefits of regular staff members when provided for in policy.

Unless otherwise specified by the department board, exempt staff shall be employed on a month-to-month basis.
